

O. P. Scene

How are you getting along?

Oh, wonderful!

I shouldn't be too optimistic if I were you.

I don't think you should worry. You have handled them very beautifully. I don't see any reason to worry. I think you handled everything beautifully. If it had been anybody else, we would have been in an awful mess.

What have you been drinking?

It's a delicious wine. I think it's Medoc.

H. P.

I'm sorry you are not going on with us.

Well, it can't be helped. It was a foolish thing to do in the first place.

What are you going to do when you land?

I don't know, but if I can get by without being arrested, I'll stay in Japan for a while and then see if I can get another boat going to America.

Have you any money?

Oh, I have enough.

Lawyers have been to blame.

What do you mean, enough? You'll need money to stay in Japan.

I'm not worried about money. The only thing I'm worried about is a passport.

You have a passport?

No.

Then they won't let you land. You'll have to stay on the boat. They won't let you land in any country. You'll be in the boat forever.

~~[xxx]~~

Then when we get out at sea, I'll talk to O.

H. P.

Look here! It's no use you're trying to get off at Kobe.
You may as well go all the way.

I should like to, but what can I do?

I'll talk to Ogden about it.

It's no use. At Kobe, he said. At Kobe he's going to push me off. Besides, I've been enough trouble to him as it is.

I got an idea. Supposing you hide in my cabin at Kobe?

H. P. scene

If you're arrested, they won't let you land anywhere.
You'll be on the boat forever.

Well, that's better than being in Shanghai.

H. P.

~~[xxx]~~

That's better than going back to Shanghai.

Are you a good [xxx]

I don't know.

Well, you are in a fix.

You mean they won't let me off at Kobe?

Of course not. They won't let you off anywhere. Not even at Shanghai. You are a girl without a country.

Then I shall sit [?] down after all.

Harry Paulette scene

Talking after the discovery of Paulette

Harry: I think that girl has character. I admire her for taking a chance like this. Poor little devil. She's all on her own without a friend. It takes courage and initiative to do what she has done.

That's all very well, but she isn't in your cabin.

I wish she was.

H. P. [xxx]

I admire her. I think the girl has character. Believe me, it takes courage and initiative to attempt what she's done. Poor little devil. She's all on her own without a friend.

That's all very well, but she isn't in your cabin.

I wish she were.

Ogden: Well, you can have her.

Harvey: She isn't hard to look at—I don't see where you're taking too much of a chance. It's been done before. Many a stowaway has gotten away with it.

Harvey's [xxx] P's Discovery notes

Well, of all people! Say, this is fun! When did you get aboard?

Not so loud, not so loud. Pipe down.

(He sees Clark passing, waits a moment.) Say Clark, come here. We've got a surprise for you.

(enter Clark)

H: Look who's here.

C: Well, this is indeed a surprise.

Can you beat it? He's been keeping her all to himself. Tell me, how long have you been aboard?

I wish you would shut up and be quiet.

H. P. Scene

~~{xxx}~~

Clark speaks to Harry about Ogden's insanity.

O: Well, I want to do it. She's getting off at Kobe.

H: I think you're very m??

(Cabin)

(Harry knocks at the door. P opens it, then hides. H looks around, then shouts "whoo whoo".)

Don't be afraid. It's only me.

Who?

Harry.

H. P. Scene

I understand you're getting off at Kobe.

P (wistfully) Yes.

That's too bad.

I should think you'd be only too glad to get rid of me.

Yes—Oh me? Oh, no! As far as I'm concerned, I wish you were going on with us.

We'll be there pretty soon.

H: Let me help you.

P: Thank you. If you'll just pour this over my head. (He pours soapy contents over her head)

H: I may as well go all the way through with it now (He starts rubbing her head)

P: You'd make a good barber.

H: That's encouraging. At least when the revolution comes I'll have a trade I can turn to, besides playing polo.

P: Why do you play polo?

H: Why do you play golf?

P: I've often wondered.
